II

1833- 1854

Overseers of the Work House, Kingsbridge,

March 1833.

Art. 1. The Alms & work house will be under the direction of a Superintendant, who is, under the direction of the Overseers, the sole master of the house; and every subject is required to observe a proper respect to the Superintendent and to the several members of his family; to conduct civilly & kindly to each other, and to keep themselves, their apparel, beds & rooms, clean & in good order.

Art. 2. All persons admitted into the house (excepting visitors) are prohibited going without the inclosure without special permission from the Superintendent; and no person will be allowed to visit the house without his consent, or a permit from one of the Overseers.

Art. 3. If any subject of the house shall abscond, on his or her being retaken, he or she shall be subject to such term of solitary confinement as the Overseer may direct; and no subject can remove from the house until discharged by the Overseer.

Art. 4. Particular care must be taken that the house & adjoining Land be kept neat & clean; and all tenanted rooms, together with the entries & stairways, must be swept every morning & scoured every week, or oftener if necessary; and no filth or dirt shall be thrown out of any window or any other place not assigned by the Superintendent.

Art. 5. Cleanliness of all persons in the house is indispensably required; combing the hair and washing the face & hands must be performed immediately after rising in the morning, and washing previous to dinner & supper, and as much oftener together with other parts of the body shaving the beard & changing the apparel, as in the opinion of the Se-superintendent may be necessary; and one day in each week (Monday, if suitable weather) be appropriated to washing clothes and scouring house.

Art. 6. The bell will be rung every morning at or before sunrise, when all persons in health are required to rise & prepare for the duties of the day. Breakfast, dinner & supper will be announced by the ringing of the bell, and all persons, (the sick & disabled excepted) will immediately repair to their meals, take such seats as are assigned them by the Superintendent, and they must strictly observe decency and good order. No food must be taken from the kitchen, or provided out of the usual times, except for the sick or infirm. At nine o'clock P.M. in summer, and eight o'clock P.M. in winter, at the ringing of the bell, every subject in the house will go to his or her apartment, extinguish his or her light, and retire to bed; and no fire or light shall be made or kept in any apartment, but by the special permission of the Superintendent.

Art: 7. Employment will be provided for all persons capable of labour, and all persons will perform such & so much labour daily as may be required by the Superintendent; and those persons who perform it cheerfully & faithfully shall be rewarded by suitable indulgencies, while the slothful & refractory shall receive exemplary punishment; and a faithful account of each individual is required to be given by the Superintendent to the Overseers at their stated meetings.

Art: 8th. Disorderly conduct, profane or obscene language, gambling, theft, embezzlement or waste, are strictly prohibited; and no subject is allow ed to make use of ardent spirits, except by the special direction of the Physician or the Overseer.

Art: 9. If any person or subject of this house bring or cause spirit to be brought into the house, they shall be confined to the cells for a term not exceeding one week.

Art: 10. The sexes shall not associate with each other, except in cases specially authorized by the Superintendent; and all unlawful connexion between them is strictly prohibited. Any violation of this article will be subject to the severest punishments.

Art: 11. The sick will have suitable apartments assigned them, and be under the care of the attending Physician; have nurses appointed to attend them by night & day, and to see that their apartments, bed, bedding and persons are kept clean, and all necessaries administered to them. But no person will be considered sick or infirm, so as to exempt him or her from Labour, unless so pronounced by the attending Physician or Superintendent.

Art. 12. There not being any religious services in the house on the Sabbath day, the subjects are required to remain in their rooms, peaceably & quietly, and to improve the time by reading the Bible and such other appropriate books as they may be supplied with; and it is at the discretion of the Superintendent to give permission to attend public worship to those who will not abuse the privilege. And should any abuse such privilege by returning intoxicated, or at an improper hour, they will be considered guilty of a high offence, and will be punished accordingly.

Art: 13. Whenever any person dies in the house, the relatives may remove the corpse and inter it at their own expense; otherwise it will be interred under the direction of the Superintendent, who will allow the relatives or friends to attend the funeral.

Art: 14. There will be a meeting of the Overseers at the house, on the 1st Monday of every month, at 2 o'clock, P.M. and at such other times and places as the Overseers shall think necessary, at which times all applications for leave of absence or discharge, shall be made.

Art: 15. The Overseers enjoin it upon every member of this house strictly to observe the foregoing Rules & Regulations, and to obey all orders of the Superintendent with promptitude & fidelity, as every act of violation and disobedience will be punished by solitary confinement, or by such other punishments as in the judgment of the Superintendent, who is directed by the Overseers to execute the Laws for the government of the house, shall be best adapted to preserve order & produce reformation.
